EPS DAY 1

PHASE 01 DECIDE

01 Get honest about why you're doing this

Not "grow an audience." One real sentence. Can't write it? Stay here.

02 Name the show. Say it out loud ten times.

"Welcome to [name]." Forced? Keep going until it isn't.

03 Write your one-line mission

Bio, intro, caption opener. One breath and anyone gets it.

04 Lock format + weekly commitment

I locked: 1 guest episode/week + 3-5 clips. Write numbers you can keep.

PHASE 02 SET UP

05 List 5 guests you already know

Famous can wait. First episodes need real conversations.

06 Setup + location you can use this week

I recorded under trees in the back garden. Quiet, light, low echo.

07 Hosting, Instagram, cover art

Spotify/Apple path ready. Clean handle. Bio = mission. Bold, simple logo.

08 Bank 3 episodes before you go public

I recorded three before posting. Launch with depth, not one lonely episode.

PHASE 03 RECORD & LAUNCH09 Book 3 guests with a simple ask

You're launching. They'd be great early. You'll handle everything.

10 Direction not script + pre-record ritual

5-10 anchors. I use breathwork with the guest. State over scripts.

11 Edit long-form. Pull 3-5 clips each.

Cut dead air. Keep human pauses. Clips are where growth lives.

12 Launch with multiple episodes + clips ready

I dropped 3 on 20 Jan 2026. Arrival, not a test.

PHASE 04 GROW13 Post 3-5x a week when it feels pointless

Quiet early days are normal. I felt that too. Keep the rhythm.

14 Tag guests. Expand outreach with specifics.

Their share is free reach. Cold DMs: specific praise, real conversation offer.

15 Review clips weekly. Adjust.

What landed? What flopped? Month six should look different.

16 Don't stop. The work compounds.

Every episode makes the next guest easier. Protect quality. Stay consistent.
